The Jungle School

Written by

Illustrated by Ketan Raut

There was a dark jungle.

It was a big dark jungle.

There were lots of trees and a narrow path.

Many animals and birds lived here.

One day, all the animals came together.

“Did you hear?” asked Tota, the parrot.

“Yes,” said Hirni, the deer.

“What?” asked Darpok, the rabbit.

“We have a school in the jungle,” answered Zhoola, the monkey.

Mota, the elephant wondered, “Hmph?”

Lambo, the giraffe said, “Oh, good!”

Dheema, the snail squealed, “Hurry, let’s go!”

Tota, the parrot flew ahead.

Zhoola, the monkey jumped from tree to tree.

Poorakha, the python slithered fast.

“Here!” shouted Tota. “Can you read?”

“It is upside down, I think,” said Zhoola hanging by the branch.

Poorakha concluded, “Hisssss.

No one can read.”

Soon, all the other friends joined them.

Lamboos looked over the tree.

“No one here,” he said.

Zhoola repeated, “No one here.”

Tota proposed, “Look carefully!”

Pilloo, the little bear declared, “I found a room!”

“I found a swing,” announced Dheema.

“What are these blocks?” Darpok wanted to know.

“What is this?” was Zhoola’s question.

Poorakha explained, “I believe, this is a pencil.”

Mota and Lamboo found a classroom.
They called the others, "Look, what is this!"
Everyone came with school bags.
They began shouting, "Teacher! Teacher!
Where is our teacher??"
No one knew.

Then they heard a roar.
They heard a loud roar.
They heard a louder roar.
Poorakha was worried.
Dheema was scared.
Tota hid behind the board.
Lambo and Zhoola were puzzled.

Who is this?

“Hup!” said Zhoola the monkey.

No one spoke.

They all looked at the teacher.

Up and down carefully.

Then they looked at one another.

The teacher turned to write on the black board.

“Jump,” said Zhoola.

“Fly!” said Tota.

Thump, thump, thump ran Mota.

“Run, run, run fast,” screamed Dheema.

“Bhagooooo,” they all shouted together.

When the teacher turned...

There was no one in the class.

The animals in the jungle rush to the new school with great enthusiasm.
What do you think happened after that?
